

Yvonne Low

Vita

Yvonne Low (b1970) is a professional facilitator, coach, talent developer, and training manager with over 20 years of experience. She conducts training in areas of human resources, leadership, customer service and interpersonal skills in Asia-Pacific countries including Singapore, Malaysia, Hong Kong, Vietnam, Japan, China, Australia, and India. She is also a career coach providing career transition coaching to assist individuals in job search and career development. Yvonne graduated with a Masters in Arts (Education & Human Resource Development) from George Washington University and a Bachelor of Business Administration (Dean's Distinction List) from the National University of Singapore.

Personal interests

Yvonne is married with two children and her interests include traveling, reading and experimenting with dishes from different cultures in the kitchen. She is able to build constructive and effective relationships and enjoys learning from friends from different cultures. She is also actively involved in community service work and has trained and consulted with several women and children's charities.

Working languages

English

Focus areas

- FMCG Industry
- Electronics Industry
- Healthcare Sector
- Finance Sector

Contact information

E: info@mji.com.sg | P: +65. 6438 1976 | F: - | M: -