

Tanja Passow

Vita

Tanja Passow started her career as a conference interpreter for German, English, and French. She then worked in corporate communications for Mettler-Toledo International, where her duties comprised both internal and external communications. In 2005, Tanja Passow moved to the field of consulting and joined Enzaim, Metaplan's Swiss partner, where she has facilitated change processes for clients in a wide range of fields. She holds a degree in translation and conference interpreting and an Executive Master of Science degree in communications management from the University of Lugano, Switzerland. Tanja Passow lectures at Zurich University of Applied Sciences in Business Administration, where she also serves as an examinations expert.

Personal interests

Tanja lives with her family in the Zürcher Oberland region of Switzerland. She devotes much of her leisure time to her daughter's schooling and hobbies. Every once in a while, she has the opportunity to dive into the depths of a beautiful warm ocean, although her much longed-for encounter with a whale shark has yet to transpire.
